For purposes of this Agreement, "Confidential Information" includes, but is not limited to, all information not generally known to the public, in spoken, printed, electronic, or any other form or medium, relevant to Company's business, such as: trade secrets, business processes, practices, methods, policies, plans, documents, research, operations, services, strategies, techniques, agreements, contracts, transactions, potential transactions, negotiations, pending negotiations, know-how, software design, web design, work-in-process, technologies, databases, compilations, device configurations, embedded data, metadata, manuals, records, systems, material, sources of material, supplier information, vendor information, financial information, results, accounting records, legal information, marketing information, advertising information, pricing information, credit information, design information, developments, reports, internal controls, security procedures, market studies, sales information, revenue, costs, formulae, notes, communications, algorithms, product plans, designs, styles, models, ideas, original works of authorship, specifications, customer information, customer and prospective customer lists of Company Group or its businesses or any existing or prospective customer, supplier, investor, or other associated third party, or of any other person or entity that has entrusted information to Company in confidence. Candidate understands that the above list is not exhaustive, and that Confidential Information also includes the fact that this confidential executive search is occurring, and other information that is marked or otherwise identified or treated as confidential or proprietary, or that would otherwise appear to a reasonable person to be confidential or proprietary in the context and circumstances in which the information is known or used.

(b) Exclusions. Candidate understands and acknowledges that Candidate's obligations under this Agreement regarding any particular Confidential Information begins immediately when Candidate first has or had access to such Confidential Information and continues until the time that the Confidential Information may become public knowledge other than as a result of Candidate's breach of this Agreement or breach by those acting in concert with Candidate or on Candidate's behalf. Where required, Candidate's non-disclosure obligation continues for so long as the information's useful life. Candidate acknowledges that these restrictions are reasonably necessary to protect the Company Group's business, are not unreasonably restrictive of Candidate's rights, and not prejudicial to the public interest.

(d) Notice of Immunity Under the Defend Trade Secrets Act of 2016. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement:

(i) Candidate will not be held criminally or civilly liable under any federal or state trade secret law for any disclosure of a trade secret that: (A) is made: (1) in confidence to a federal, state, or local government official, either directly or indirectly, or to Candidate's personal attorney; and (2) solely for the purpose of reporting or investigating a suspected violation of law; or (B) is made in a complaint or other document that is filed under seal in a lawsuit or other proceeding.

(ii) If Candidate files a lawsuit for retaliation by Company for reporting a suspected violation of law, Candidate may disclose Company's trade secrets to Candidate's personal attorney and use the trade secret information in the court proceeding if Candidate: (A) files any document containing the trade secret under seal; and (B) does not disclose the trade secret, except pursuant to court order.

(e) Other Permitted Disclosures.

(i) Nothing in this Agreement will be construed to prevent disclosure of Confidential Information as may be required by applicable law or regulation, or pursuant to the valid order of a court of competent jurisdiction or an authorized government agency, provided that the disclosure does not exceed the extent of disclosure required by such law, regulation, or order. In addition, nothing in this Agreement prohibits Candidate from initiating communications directly with, responding to any inquiry from, or reporting possible violations of federal, state, or local law or regulation to any governmental agency or entity, including but not limited to the Department of Justice, the Securities and Exchange Commission, the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority, Congress, the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission, the National Labor Relations Board, any agency Inspector General, or making other disclosures that are protected under the whistleblower provisions of federal, state or, local law or regulation. Candidate is not required to contact Company Group regarding the subject matter of any such communications before engaging in such communications.

(ii) Nothing in this Agreement in any way prohibits or is intended to restrict or impede, and will not be interpreted or understood as restricting or impeding, Candidate from testifying truthfully under oath pursuant to a lawfully-issued subpoena, engaging in any other legally-protected disclosure activity, or exercising other protected rights to the extent that such rights cannot be waived by agreement.

(iii) Nothing in this Agreement limits Candidate's ability to disclose or discuss, either orally or in writing, any alleged discriminatory or unfair employment practice.

2. No Employment Relationship. This Agreement is not intended to and shall not be construed to create an employment relationship between Company or Company Group and Candidate.

3. Remedies. In the event of a breach or threatened breach by Candidate of any of the provisions of this Agreement, Candidate hereby consents and agrees that money damages would not afford an adequate remedy and that Company Group will be entitled to seek a temporary or permanent injunction or other equitable relief against such breach or threatened breach from any court of competent jurisdiction, without the necessity of showing any actual damages, and without the necessity of posting any bond or other security. Any equitable relief will be in addition to, not in lieu of, legal remedies, monetary damages, or other available relief.

4. Successors and Assigns. Candidate may not assign this Agreement or any part hereof. Any purported assignment by Candidate will be null and void from the initial date of purported assignment. Company Group may assign this Agreement to any subsidiary or corporate affiliate, or to any successor or assign (whether direct or indirect, by purchase, merger, consolidation, or otherwise) to all or substantially all of the business or assets of Company Group. This Agreement will inure to the benefit of Company Group and permitted successors and assigns.

This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Ohio, without giving effect to any choice of law or conflict of law provision or rule that would cause the application of the law of any jurisdiction other than the State of Ohio. Each of the Parties submits to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of any state or federal court sitting in the State of Ohio, in any action or proceeding arising out of or relating to this Agreement. Each of the Parties waives any defense of inconvenient forum to the maintenance of any action or proceeding so brought and waives any bond, surety, or other security that might be required of any other party with respect thereto.

7. Entire Agreement. This Agreement contains all the understandings and representations between Candidate and Company Group pertaining to the subject matter hereof and supersedes all prior and contemporaneous understandings, agreements, representations, and warranties, both written and oral, with respect to such subject matter.

8. Modification and Waiver. No provision of this Agreement may be amended or modified unless the amendment or modification is agreed to in writing and signed by Candidate and by an authorized Candidate of Company Group. No waiver by either Party of any breach of any condition or provision of this Agreement to be performed by the other Party will be deemed a waiver of any other provision or condition at the same or any prior or subsequent time, nor will the failure of or delay by either Party in exercising any right, power, or privilege under this Agreement operate as a waiver to preclude any other or further exercise of any right, power, or privilege.

9. Severability. If any provision of this Agreement is, for any reason, held by a court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid or unenforceable, the other provisions of this Agreement will remain enforceable, and the invalid or unenforceable provision will be deemed modified or stricken so that it is valid and enforceable to the maximum extent permitted by law. The Parties expressly agree that this Agreement as so modified by a court of competent jurisdiction will be binding upon and enforceable against each of them.
